

HONORS PROGRAMS AND SOCIETIES

School/Departmental Honors Programs

Some Schools and College of the Pacific departments offer students the opportunity to complete an honors program in a student's major area of study. Schools and programs will determine the eligibility and program requirements, and these programs will generally commence in a student's junior or senior year. Completion of the program will be noted on the student's transcript.