During orientation, freshmen meet current Pacific students, faculty and staff, learn about academic majors, expectations, and opportunities for involvement in campus life, participate in advising, and complete registration for fall classes.

Transfer Orientation

Transfer orientation is designed to recognize and build on the previous college experiences of transfer students, while at the same time introducing them to the unique aspects of college life at Pacific. Transfer students participate in an orientation program that includes academic advising, course registration and information about how to quickly become engaged in Pacific’s academic and campus culture. During transfer orientation, students have the opportunity to interact with many faculty, students and staff that may play a key role in their college career and time at Pacific.

Welcome Week serves as a kick off to the academic year at Pacific. For new students, the week provides the opportunity to participate in Pacific’s nationally recognized MOVE (Mountains Oceans Valley Experience).
Peer advisors also assist in referring students to the full range of campus services. Student Academic Support Services also coordinates the Program of Access to Support Services (PASS), an individualized plan of access to University resources designed to facilitate college success. Based on an assessment of the student’s academic needs, each PASS student helps design his or her own action plan for the semester. PASS is required for some students, but is available to any enrolled student who can benefit from a system of contact and academic resources. For more information visit Student Academic Support Services in Hand Hall or call at (209) 946-2177.

Community Services

The Center for Community Involvement (CCI) provides in-depth learning in Leadership, Advocacy, and Activism through service to the community. CCI provides students with opportunities and resources to contribute through community service and volunteer work with a diverse number of non-profit organizations. New students can choose to become involved in Reach Out Pacific during the Welcome Week or participate with returning students later in the fall semester. During these experiences, students are able to visit and experience working with our community partners. During the academic year Pacific students tutor youth, conduct on-campus enrichment programs, conduct blood drives, and volunteer at many non-profits including Children’s Home of Stockton, Delta Human Society, Big Brothers Big Sisters, St. Mary’s Interfaith and Community Services, Stockton Arts Commission, Stockton Shelter for the Homeless, the Women’s Center and many more. Campus community involvement events have included students from the School of Education who teach youth to construct balloons and pinwheels during the annual Balloon Fest, Physical Education students who teach swimming to the disabled; Spanish-speaking students who teach adult Mexican-Americans to speak and read English. In addition, Pharmacy students are actively involved in the community through the Academy of Students of Pharmacy. Programs sponsored by the students include the Aids Awareness, Diabetes Education, the Drug Awareness Children’s Carnival and Immunization Certificate programs. The prominence of the Pharmacy students in these areas has manifested itself over the years by the accumulation of awards and grants.

Community Involvement Program

The Community Involvement Program (CIP), established in 1969, is designed to serve the educational needs of local students who demonstrate a historically low family income and a disadvantaged background. The Community Involvement Program is only for new incoming University of the Pacific students. Once in the program students are offered leadership training and various opportunities for students to return to the community as leaders and agents of social change.

Students in the Community Involvement Program are selected based on their participation in the Stockton community, maturity, and potential to contribute his/her time and energy to the Community Involvement Program. The PRIDE Center welcomes a diversity of ethnic, religious, political and cultural values while promoting understanding and acceptance for those marginalized as a result of sexual/gender orientation. The PRIDE Center is located in the Multicultural Center.

Housing

Living on campus is central to student life at Pacific. The University considers the residential living experience to be an important part of its educational opportunities, and recognizes that living on campus contributes significantly to a student’s development and to the learning process. The University requires all students who are of freshmen or sophomore class standing (earning less than 56 units) to live on campus. The only exceptions are for students who reside with their parent(s) or legal guardian(s) at their permanent address within the 50 miles of the University, or who are over the age of 23 (twenty-three). Additional information of this policy is available in the Tiger Lore and from the Housing and Greek Life Office.

Housing and Greek Life provide living accommodations in residence halls, fraternities, sororities and apartment facilities for approximately 2,200 students. All University-operated Greek houses, residence halls and apartments are staffed by professional and graduate student staff. Each of the University’s residence halls and apartments is coeducational, where men and women reside within the same facility, but not in the same room or apartment. All students living in the residence halls, apartment communities, and some fraternities and sororities are required to purchase a meal plan.

Some residence halls are reserved for new freshmen interested in Learning Communities, such as the Honors Program (by invitation only) and other Residential Learning Community programs. University apartments are reserved for students who have either a junior or senior standing. The Tower View Apartments are for married students or students with a domestic partner, and/or a child under the age of three (3). Residence within the fraternity and sorority system is limited to students who were members of the organization the previous semester.

The Housing and Greek Life office is responsible for making all assignments to the residence halls and apartment communities. Students already enrolled apply directly to the Housing and Greek Life Office. Upon acceptance to the University, an applicant will be sent a packet of information with the a brochure describing Pacific’s living options, instruction on how to apply online for housing, the student housing contract for housing and dining services, and rates. The student housing and dining contacts are for the complete academic year including both the fall and spring semesters for general university students and the fall, winter and spring terms for Pharmacy students. The residence halls and dining halls are not open during the winter break recess period. Detailed descriptions of these facilities, including cost are available from Housing and Greek Life Office at 209.946.2331 or iamhome@pacific.edu. Housing
Dining Services

The Dining Service Program is provided by Bon Appetit, the premier name in university dining. Menus are created by the on-site Executive Chef with an emphasis on taste and quality using only the freshest ingredients. The program requires students who reside in the residence halls and apartments to participate. Multiple student dining options are found at the University Center with “Grab and Go” alternatives available in the Grove.

Pacific utilizes a declining balance meal plan. This plan works like a debit card and is usable at the eating venues in the University Center and at other campus dining locations. Each time a student makes a purchase at one of the many dining options throughout campus, the amount is deducted from the balance. A receipt will be provided with amount used and the remaining balance left on the account.

Students are able to use their meal plan account in a variety of dining locations through the University Center including the Marketplace (the main dining facility), The Lair (the campus pub), and the Calaveras Coffee House. In addition, students will also be able to use their Dining Dollars at the Davy’s Café (located in the Library), the Health Sciences Café (located in the Health Sciences Learning Center), the E.A.T. Food Truck (located on South campus), and the Grove, a University Convenience Store (located in the McCaffrey Center). The Grove offers items such as detergent, household cleaning supplies, toiletries, as well as “grab and go” food options such as fresh made salads, coffee, soups, sandwiches, and desserts.

The Marketplace features a variety of stations to choose from including a Taqueria station that focuses on meals from many countries in South America, a Classics station that features home-style items and comfort foods, a Pacific Rim station that offers specialties from throughout the Asian region, an Exhibition station that focuses on grill menu options, and other menu options that include such things as a salad bar, deli station, home-style soups, freshly baked desserts, and beverages. At least one vegetarian entrée is featured at each meal.

For more information on meal plans, please contact Housing and Greek Life at 209-946-2331 or iamhome@pacific.edu.

Cowbell Wellness Center

Cowbell Student Wellness Center houses both Health and Counseling services. The facility is located north of the footbridge, at 1041 Brookside Road, in Stockton. Services are available to students who have paid the student health fee and are enrolled at any of Pacific’s campuses.

Students are required to submit documentation of an entrance physical, health insurance coverage, and meet the immunization and TB clearance requirements. Health and Counseling services are provided on an appointment basis, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. during the regular school year. Walk in appointments are seen on a case-by-case basis determined by the urgency of the presenting condition. During the summer, the Counseling and Health Services follow hours that are set forth by the University. The Center is closed on weekends and holidays. When services are unavailable, students may access a Nurse Advice Line to receive instructions or recommendations for treatment options. Students who use the advice line must be currently enrolled and provide their student identification numbers. Professional staff also provide follow-up as needed on the next operational day.

Health Services

Health care providers consist of full time Nurse Practitioners/Physician Assistants, a Physician consultant and Medical Assistants. Health care delivery and medical record management are protected by privacy and confidentiality regulations.

Health services include the management of common health problems such as acute minor illnesses and injuries, and preventative care. Routine gynecological care (Pap smears), contraceptive maintenance, STD testing, immunizations, routine physicals, and health education are well-utilized preventative care services. Prescription medications are made available as indicated. Several categories of medication are provided directly through the Center, otherwise prescriptions are filled at local pharmacies. Laboratory services include limited in-house testing and full service processing through local labs.

Management of chronic conditions is provided on a case-by-case basis. Typically, students are referred to local specialists for this care and as the need arises. Hospitalization and emergency treatment for life-threatening conditions are not managed in the Center. In those circumstances care is referred to one of three local hospitals. Staff may arrange for ambulance transport as indicated.

The Health fee pays for unlimited health service visits and up to ten individual therapy appointments through Counseling Services. Students are accommodated on a case-by-case basis for situations or conditions requiring additional therapy sessions. Further costs are incurred with the purchase of medication, diagnostic testing, or referrals to off campus health care providers. Students can elect to pay these additional costs associated with their care at time of service or submit a bill to their health insurance plans.

Health Insurance

The University has a mandatory health insurance policy with a hard waiver. This requires all students to submit a copy of their health insurance card to the Cowbell Wellness Center Insurance Office and complete a waiver on-line through the link found on the Health Services web page http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Student-Services/Health-Services.html. Once at the waiver website students click on “Find Your School” and enter University of the Pacific in the designated space on the form. Once the University of the Pacific insurance homepage is located, the insurance waiver is found among the links on the left hand side of the page. Students have the option to enroll in the University of the Pacific student health insurance plan offered through Anthem Blue Cross, select an outside plan, or be covered under their family’s policy. Students who do not complete the waiver by the posted deadline date are automatically enrolled in the Anthem Blue Cross plan to ensure that their health needs are covered.

The Associated Students is the student government of the University of the Pacific (ASUOP). ASUOP is completely operated and funded by the University of the Pacific students. 1. To serve as an official channel for the free exchange of ideas and opinions among the administration, faculty, staff, and students;
2. To provide services and student activities across campus that enrich the social, cultural, and educational aspects of university life.

A per semester fee is automatically assessed to every undergraduate or professional student registered with more than 8.5 units including them as an ASUOP member. This fee income, combined with various revenue sources, amounts to a total budget to fund the programs, services, activities, and goals of the Associated Students. ASUOP has designated a large part of the budget to fund the unique social and professional needs of Pacific students. The student leadership within each constituent school provides additional attention and personal service for those students.

The success of ASUOP depends upon active student involvement. The University and the Associated Students encourage student involvement in campus governance and believe that a sound administration calls for shared responsibility among all members of the campus community. To get involved or for further information, visit the ASUOP office located on the second level of the McCaffrey Center, or call (209) 946-2233.

Traditional Events at the University
Celebrate Diversity
A year-round educational campaign designed to promote understanding and sensitivity toward diversity in ability, age, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual orientation, size, socioeconomic class and other dimensions of human difference. Through cooperative leadership, students and community organizations from diverse backgrounds build lasting alliances that service and empower each individual, the campus, and the community. The year-long campaign culminates with an extended week of programming in the spring.

Student Employment Expo
The Student Employment Expo, a Career Resource Center event, is designed to make search for Work Study, on-campus, and volunteer opportunities within the Stockton Community easier for students. While intended primarily for students who are work-study eligible, the Student Employment Expo offers opportunities for all students in all majors.

Meet Your Future
“Meet Your Future” is a two-week program that consists of Resume Reviews, Mock Interviews and Employer Panels Presentations. The purpose of this event is to provide students with relevant, first-hand information about their resumes, interviewing skills, employer information, and industry trends. This is also an opportunity for employers to identify potential talent for their current and future hiring needs. The annual “Meet Your Future” event is held in the spring semester as a preparation for the Career Faire.

Spring Career Faire
The annual Spring Career Faire is an event that brings more than 100 organizations, representing a wide range of industries to Pacific’s campus. The Career Faire is an excellent opportunity for students from all majors to network and explore full-time, part-time, internships, and co-op opportunities. This is an excellent venue for students to learn more about career opportunities that exist within each organization and how to apply to those they wish to pursue.

Homecoming/Parents Weekend/Fall Festival
Homecoming/Parents Weekend provides an October weekend of excitement for students and their parents. A variety of activities take place to celebrate Pacific and the culmination of Greek Week and RHA Spirit Week. The weekend includes concerts, athletic and fine arts events, and the Annual Fall Festival.

Founders Day
An annual spring event that celebrates the founding of the University by Methodists missionaries and the heritage that came from them. Events include a chapel service for all members of the University community and a luncheon with speakers from the Heritage Society.

Holiday Festival of Lights
An annual celebration, held in December that honors and incorporates various religious and cultural traditions focusing on light, including, Hanukkah, Christmas, Ramadan, Winter Solstice and Kwanza.

Student Activities Fair
The Student Activities Fair is held annually on the third Thursday of the fall semester in the McCaffrey Center. The fair showcases student organizations, together with local vendors and artisans. Student organizations use the fair as an opportunity to inform new students about involvement opportunities. The fair also features music, games and giveaways.

University Standards

Academic Standards

Judicial Affairs
The Office of Judicial Affairs manages the student judicial process for students on the Stockton campus. Pacific has developed policies and procedures to clarify the expectations and standards for students. Each student is responsible for knowing and adhering to all University policies and procedures. The policies are outlined specifically in the TIGER LORE Handbook and on the web site at http://www.pacific.edu/Student-Life/Student-Life-Services/Judicial-Affairs/Tiger-Lore-Student-Handbook.html

Honor Code
All students on the Stockton campus are expected, on applying for enrollment, to sign an honor pledge appropriate to the objectives and relationships of the University. The Honor Code calls each student to be responsible for observing high ethical conduct. While the Honor Code recognizes that its vitality rests with the individual student as the community structure of controls and judiciary procedures to make the Honor Code effective is outlined in the Tiger Lore.

Violating the Student Code of Conduct, University Policies and/or Local, State or Federal Laws
The violation of established policies or procedures and/or local, state or federal laws may constitute a violation of the honor code. Such violations may include conduct that occurs off-campus when students are participating, attending or in some manner connected to a University related activity.

Campus Standards
Rather than publish in this catalog a complete and detailed code of the laws, rules and regulations that students are required to follow, the University declares its intention to uphold all federal, state and municipal laws acceptable and expects all students to abide by the Student Code of Conduct and university policies. At the time of admission each student agrees to follow such standards. Accordingly, any conduct not consistent with responsible and/or lawful behavior may be considered cause for the University to take appropriate administrative, disciplinary or legal action. In addition, the University acknowledges and actively upholds the adult status of each student with all the rights pertaining thereto and, in accordance with that status, considers each student responsible for his/her own actions.

University policies and regulations are published in the Tiger Lore and distributed annually to all students. Statements pertaining to or clarification of student rights are also published in this document.

Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy
Students, faculty and staff comply with all federal, state and local laws and University policies governing the consumption, possession, distribution and sale of alcoholic beverages and drugs on University property; at any activity or event on and off the campus sponsored by Pacific; or where a campus community member represents Pacific as part of an off-campus program, activity or event.

More detailed policy information regarding the consumption, possession, distribution and sale of alcohol can be found on the Tiger Lore website link at www.pacific.edu.

Except as legally prescribed, drugs are prohibited. Additionally, the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of any controlled substance, including marijuana, is prohibited.

Academic Standards for Holding Student Office
In order to hold either an elected or appointed office in the Associated Students of the University of the Pacific (ASUOP), the constituent schools, fraternal societies, residence halls or the editorial staff of The Pacifican, a student must be registered for a full-time course of study (12 units undergraduate, 8 units graduate) each semester during which he/she holds office. He/she must successfully complete the above minimum units each semester in order to continue in the position. Exceptions to this may be made for seniors in the final semester prior to graduation.

A student must maintain a minimum of a 2.25 cumulative GPA in all letter-graded coursework attempted at the University of the Pacific. In addition, specific policies of professional schools may stipulate that in order to hold student office, a student must maintain a 2.0 GPA minimum in the required courses of the major program. Major leadership positions in ASUOP require a 2.5 GPA. Finally, a student may not be on disciplinary probation during the period of time that he/she holds office. Except for any professional school policy, exceptions to these standards may be considered by the Office of Student Life.

University Programs and Services

Aerospace Studies (Air Force ROTC)
Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps is available to University of the Pacific students through a program offered at California State University, Sacramento. The CSUS Department of Aerospace Studies offers two-, three-, and four-year programs leading to a commission in the United States Air Force. All coursework (12 to 16 semester units) is completed on the CSUS campus. Leadership Laboratory, physical fitness training, and lecture are normally offered during the early morning hours Monday through Friday. Field training is conducted during part of the summer at an active duty air force base, normally between the student's sophomore and junior years.

Upon completion of the program and all requirements for a Bachelor's degree, cadets are commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Force and serve a minimum of four years on active duty. Graduates who are qualified and are selected, may enter pilot or navigator training after graduation, or serve in a specialty consistent with their academic major, individual goals, and existing Air Force needs. Graduates may request a delay of entry to active duty to continue their education or may apply for Air Force-sponsored graduate study to begin immediately upon entry on active duty.

Air Force ROTC offers 3-year and 2-year scholarships to qualified students. Applications are accepted in any academic discipline; however, particular emphasis is usually given to applicants in the fields of engineering, computer science, mathematics, and physics. Due to firm scheduling requirements for the Air Force ROTC program, students are encouraged to work closely with their academic advisors in planning this academic program. Application to the Air Force ROTC program should normally be no later than the first semester of a student's sophomore year. Juniors, seniors and graduate students may also apply under certain conditions. Contact the unit admissions officer in the Aerospace Studies Department at CSUS, telephone (916) 278-7783, for information on the program or the entry process.

Testing Services
The Testing Center in the Benner School of Education is an officially designated national testing center for the Graduate Record Examination in subject matter only. The Testing Center is available for proctoring services for individuals seeking to take an exam of any subject. Proctoring services are open to Pacific students, students attending other institutions, and the general public, whether offered through another college, university, and/or private/public business. Individuals interested in proctoring services should contact the Testing Center at (209) 946-2361. The Testing Center is located at the Gladys L. Benner School of Education, Room 101.

Clinical Services
In the School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, the Speech, Hearing and Language Center, in cooperation with the Stockton Scottish Rite Childhood Language Disorders Center, provides a program for children and adults who have need for individual or group therapy for such problems as stuttering, cleft palate, aphasia, cerebral palsy, and speech and language disorders. The Center also provides communication development, auditory training, and speech reading therapy for hearing impaired individuals. Comprehensive audiological assessment is also available for children and adults.

Experiential Learning at Pacific
For decades universities have used experiential learning programs as a way to assist students in integrating their academic training with the practical side of the working world. These programs have allowed the students to gain hands-on experience in a relatively risk-free environment while being supervised and mentored by their faculty and the work site professional. As Pacific students prepare themselves for their own career journey, the value of work experience in each student’s field of interest has never been greater. Today’s employers are more likely to hire students who combine appropriate classroom training with meaningful experience in the working world.

Cooperative education, internship, and professional training programs have long been a hallmark of academic distinctiveness at the University of the Pacific. In 1989, Pacific’s Academic Council approved a revision to the experiential learning programs that will meet the needs of the students far into the 21st century. In addition to traditional internship, cooperative education, and clinical programs, Pacific has expanded offerings to include fieldwork, service learning, research, practicum and study abroad. Now there is virtually something for every major and every academic program.

There has never been a more appropriate or easier time to get involved in an experiential learning program.

Pacific’s Career Resource Center urges all current and future students to consider adding an Experiential Learning Opportunity (ELO) to their academic pursuits. For additional information about ELO offerings, please contact the Career Resource Center (CRC) office at (209) 946-2361.

Office of Services for Students with Disabilities in the Division of Student Life
The University does not discriminate against students and applicants on the basis of disability, in the administration of its educational and other programs. The University reasonably accommodates qualified students (including applicants) with disabilities as defined by applicable law, if the individual is otherwise qualified to meet the fundamental requirements and aspects of the program of the University, without undue hardship to the University. Harassment on the basis of disability issues is prohibited by the University’s policies.

For purposes of reasonable accommodation, a student or applicant with a disability is a person who: (a) has a physical or mental impairment which limits one or more major life activities (such as walking, seeing, speaking, learning, or working); or (b) has a record with the University by which the University has officially recognized such impairment. To be eligible to continue at the University, the student or applicant must meet the qualifications and requirements expected generally of its students, and must also be able to perform the requirements of the individual major or program in which s/he is enrolled.

A qualified student or applicant is an individual with a disability as defined by this policy and applicable law who meets the academic and technical standards requisite to admission and participation in the educational program or activity. Accommodations are such modifications to the course, program or educational requirements as are necessary and effective for the individual, if reasonable to provide at the University and do not alter the fundamental nature of programs. Accommodations do not include exemption from academic evaluation standards or from the code of student conduct.

Pacific expects that, if a student has a disability, the student gives sufficient notice of the need for assistance (preferably prior to the start of the semester) although the University does consider the merits of each request at the time it is received. Upon receiving a request for assistance as well as appropriate documentation, the Coordinator of the Office of Services for Disabilities considers the student’s need for assistance as it relates to the documented disability. If appropriate, the University may choose to consult with such individuals, internal or external to the University, to provide further assistance needed to evaluate the request for accommodation. The following list is an example of the types of reasonable accommodations and services that university may provide, on a case-by-case basis, to assure equal access:

- Academic adjustments and curricular modifications
- Assistive technology
- Consultation with faculty and staff
- Registration assistance and classroom rescheduling
- Readers, scribes, note-taking, and library assistance
- Test proctoring services

Please note the university does not provide or subsidize personal care devices or services such as ambulatory devices or assistance with bathing, dressing, laundry, etc. Referrals to external agencies, however, are available upon request.

Tutorial Program
Administered by the Educational Resource Center, the University of the Pacific’s Tutorial Program offers free one-on-one tutoring to all enrolled students. This is a peer-tutoring program; tutors are those students who have achieved success in their subject areas. Students interested in our tutoring services should come to the first floor of the McCaffrey Center, Room 102 to schedule an appointment. The Tutoring Center’s hours during the Fall and Spring semesters are Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Fridays, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Tutors in most subjects are available; however, students are urged to contact the office early in the semester, so that tutors can be sought. The Tutorial Program makes every attempt to locate tutors; however, sometimes tutors may not be readily available in some subjects. Any student interested in becoming a tutor is also welcome to contact the office. For more information, please contact us by calling (209) 946-2437 or via email: erctutorial@pacific.edu.

University Honors Program
Pacific’s Honors Program supports an intellectual community of academically outstanding students in all programs and majors who seek added challenge and breadth in their studies, and who wish to more fully develop their talents and potential. Participation is by invitation. Freshmen students are invited based on high school performance. Factors considered include Advanced Placement courses, general curriculum, SAT or ACT scores and GPA. Sophomore students are invited on the basis of freshman year grades. By accepting the invitation, students agree to remain in the program for at least one year.

The honors curriculum consists of honors general education courses, honors seminars, and a senior project. Requirements and timing vary with a student’s choice of school and program. Additionally, freshman honors students are required to attend eight events from our calendar of “colloquia” events. Students who complete the program receive appropriate annotation on their official transcripts.

Freshman honors students may elect to live in John Ballantyne Hall or Carter House. These adjacent residence halls constitute an academic living community reserved for freshman honors students and a number of sophomore “peers” chosen to help freshmen make the adjustment to college life. The Honors Program Director, whose office is located in John Ballantyne 113, works with the residential life staff to coordinate extra-curricular programming. Honors Program residents traditionally have taken leadership roles in campus politics, social activities and scholarship.

For further information, e-mail the Honors Director, George Randels, at grandels@pacific.edu, or call (209) 946-2283. http://honors.pacific.edu.

Fellowship Office
The Fellowship Advisor is available to assist students across the university in pursuing national awards that support undergraduate research and graduate study. Scholarships and fellowships may fund tuition in the U.S. or study abroad, sponsor research projects or internships, and provide mentoring in the recipient’s chosen field of graduate study. Students considering graduate school or post-baccalaureate research projects abroad are encouraged to contact the Fellowship Advisor early in their academic careers, ideally at the beginning of sophomore year. For news and events, and to begin your search for fellowships and scholarships, see the Fellowship Office website: http://web.pacific.edu/x21104.xml.

For further information, email the Fellowship Advisor, Susan Weiner, at sweiner@pacific.edu, or call (209) 946-2406.

International Programs and Services (IPS)
Located in the Bechtel International Center (BIC) between Casa Jackson and Jessie Ballantyne Halls, IPS offers comprehensive services for Pacific international students and scholars coming to the United States as well as for Pacific students wanting to study, intern or volunteer abroad. IPS serves as the liaison between University schools, departments and offices, collaborating with them to enhance international and global education across the campus.

Bechtel International Center
The Bechtel International Center functions not only as home to International Programs and Services, but also as a gathering place for a variety of international and global functions. BIC is open for office hours from 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. when classes are in session, except for holidays.

International Students and Scholars Services
IPS offers a comprehensive package of services for all international students and scholars at Pacific. IPS supports and enhances the academic, cultural, and social integration of international students, scholars, and their families. This includes, but is not limited to, counseling about immigration, academic, financial, and personal issues. IPS conducts the Exchange Visitor Program of the U.S. Department of State. The objective of the Exchange Visitor category is to facilitate and increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries by means of educational and cultural exchanges. For more information call (209) 946-2246.

Education Abroad
The University of the Pacific offers students the opportunity to study, intern or volunteer abroad for a semester or an academic year in a variety of Pacific sponsored programs around the world. Students are encouraged to consider this option to enrich their lives, add an essential dimension to effective study at Pacific, and further career preparation in an increasingly global world.

In addition to its own direct exchange and direct enrollment options, IPS sponsors programs through other universities and consortia. Credit earned on Pacific Education Abroad is awarded through University of the Pacific. For all Pacific sponsored education abroad programs, students pay Pacific tuition, which covers all program tuition, and all scholarships and federal loans apply. Students may only participate in Pacific sponsored education abroad programs and the general requirements for pre-approval are sophomore standing and a 2.5 Pacific cumulative GPA.

The foreign language requirements for Pacific education abroad programs vary, but viable options exist for every major on campus. Most students choose to participate in their sophomore or junior years. However, interested students should investigate education abroad choices as early as possible in their academic careers to ensure eligibility. Many programs require prerequisite courses (e.g., a certain level of foreign language proficiency) and all require a minimum grade point average. Additionally, many programs incorporate home stays with local families and some the opportunity for independent study or research, internships, and/or volunteer opportunities.

Many education abroad programs offer a broad curriculum, although some have a specific academic focus such as business, ecology, language immersion, studio arts or music performance. Internships in government, business, law, public relations, etc., are also available at many sites. All Pacific sponsored programs offer students the challenges and benefits of studying and immersing themselves in a culture different from their own. Cross-Cultural Training Course is required for all students studying abroad for a semester or full year. A companion course, also is available for students returning from an education abroad experience. Both courses are two-unit offerings.

The enrollment courses for Education Abroad and School of Record students are listed under 093a-z, and 193a-z.

Library Services and Collections

The University Library delivers its services from two facilities. The main library, the William Knox Holt Memorial Library, provides resources in the humanities, fine arts, social sciences, music, business, education, natural and physical sciences, international studies, engineering and computer science, and speech language pathology. Academic disciplines represented in the Health Sciences Branch Library include pharmacy, physical therapy, and dental hygiene. Both facilities offer a variety of services and study settings, including carrels, large tables, lounge areas, and group study rooms.

In addition to more than 400,000 print and multimedia items in its collections, the University Library continues to increase online availability to thousands of electronic full-text journals, electronic books, and streaming audio and video resources. In addition, more than 100 databases targeted toward the academic disciplines taught at Pacific are now accessible at any time to students and faculty wherever they have access to an Internet connection, on or off campus.

Library faculty and staff members are regularly singled out and recognized by students and faculty for their commitment to service and expertise in providing research assistance. Librarians present specialized classes and workshops designed to help students and faculty use library resources and research tools effectively. Most of this instruction includes hands-on learning at computer workstations in our electronic classrooms.

Fletcher Jones Information Commons

An integration of computer lab and library reference services, the main library’s Fletcher Jones Information Commons currently provides more than 70 computer workstations and laptops. Students can combine information and data culled from library resources and web-based materials with tools such as word processing, spreadsheets, scanning, and presentation software that enhance and improve their academic research and presentations. The Commons is staffed with a reference librarian who assists with research and information questions and an Information Commons student assistant who provides technical help with workstations, printers, and software tools. The Rite-Aid Information Commons, in the Health Sciences Branch Library, provides 20 computer workstations, a print station, and a scanner.

Multimedia Studio

The Multimedia Studio is located on the main floor of the library next to the Information Commons. Its six workstations provide the Pacific community with specialized software and hardware for the completion of multimedia-infused projects. Designed to accommodate the increasing importance of multimedia technology within the educational process, the Multimedia Studio welcomes any Pacific student, faculty, and staff member to take advantage of its advanced design tools.

Roger A. and Elizabeth Davey Café

The Roger and Elizabeth Davey Café, more commonly referred to as the Davey Café, is located on the main floor of the University Library. The Davey Café is open early morning to late evening, Monday-Friday and Sunday. Stop by this popular library meeting place for your favorite coffee drink and pastry or a light lunch.

Instant Messaging

Members of the Pacific community can now receive reference and directional assistance by way of our AskPacific Instant Messaging service. Our IM screen name (AskPacific) works with all major IM service providers. For more information, see http://www.pacific.edu/Library/Get-Help/Ask-a-Librarian.html

The University Library Website

http://pacific.edu/Library.html

The University Library’s website provides a portal to its materials, research tools, and services. Here is POUNCE, the University Library’s web-based search tool that allows users to search all of the Library’s content in one search. In addition, you can connect to an academic database that leads to journal references on a particular topic. And once you know what journals you’re looking for, it leads you to those journals in print or electronic full-text format. From the website you can chat with a librarian, request a book through interlibrary loan, check on the University Library’s hours, renew your books, and much more. The University Library’s website is an excellent starting point when looking for library materials and assistance!

Holt-Atherton Special Collections

The Holt-Atherton Special Collections Department embodies Pacific’s sense of distinctiveness. It houses over 400 unique manuscript collections that document the history of California, as well as a Western Americana book collection dating to the 18th century, and the University’s archival records. The most significant manuscript materials include the John Muir Papers, the Brubeck Collection, several collections of original documents from Japanese-American internment camps in World War II, and extensive holdings on the history of Stockton and San Joaquin County. Because these collections can only be found at Pacific, they draw scholars and researchers from around the world and offer unique research opportunities to Pacific students.

Pacific Alumni Association

The Pacific Alumni Association (PAA) includes all alumni of the University of the Pacific. There is no membership fee and services are available to all members. An elected Board of Directors (30) develops programs and benefits with the Office of Alumni Relations staff. Writing in the Disciplines Program

Dr. Mike K. Peterson, Director
Student Writing Center
2nd Floor, Main Library
209-932-2970 Ext. 22970

Mission

The goal of Writing in the Disciplines is to assist faculty and students at Pacific in the improvement of student writing within their majors and individual disciplines and to encourage more active, engaged learning through writing intensive courses, the use of innovative teaching methods in writing instruction, and tutorial support from the Student Writing Center for all levels of writing, from the Pacific Seminars to Senior Capstone Courses.

Academic Initiatives:

1. The Student Writing Center, supported jointly by the Library and the College, opened on the 2nd floor of the main library in the fall of 2009. It is currently staffed by the Director, a part-time Coordinator, and twenty or more Writing Mentors, twelve of whom work directly in the Center as drop-in tutors of writing at all levels and ten who work with individual faculty in writing intensive courses across the curriculum.

2. Faculty workshops, consultations, and stipends support and encourage faculty development of writing intensive courses and collective efforts in writing instruction, curriculum revision, and writing assessment at the departmental, program, and university levels.

3. The program provides funding and support for attendance and participation of faculty and students at conferences and workshops related to writing in the disciplines or writing across the curriculum, for campus visits by notable authors or experts in the field of writing and writing instruction, and for the acquisition of texts and materials related to writing instruction in any field or discipline.
