Program Description

The Pacific Legal Advantage Program offers students interested in pursuing a career in law the opportunity to earn a bachelor's degree and a JD degree in an abbreviated period of time. The program offers both a 3+3 and 4+3 track. Students work with the program director to design an individualized curriculum based on each student's track and chosen major. The Legal Advantage Program is designed to work with any major to prepare students for advanced legal study (Note: some majors require a 4+3 track). There are two distinct pathways to McGeorge Law School, an LSAT required pathway and an LSAT waiver pathway.

McGeorge Promise:

LSAT required: Students must have a 3.6 LSAC-cumulative undergraduate GPA and a 157 on LSAT to receive automatic admission to McGeorge. Applies to both 3+3 and 4+3 tracks.

LSAT waiver: Students have a 3.8 cumulative undergraduate GPA and have not taken the LSAT.

Applicants who take the LSAT at any time prior to matriculation at McGeorge are ineligible for admission under the Direct Admission LSAT Waiver program and will be reconsidered for admission through the normal admissions process.

Direct Admission applicants who have not taken the LSAT and who meet the applicable conditions stated above will be considered until they constitute 10 percent of that school year's McGeorge's incoming class.

* All applicants to McGeorge through this pathway must also meet McGeorge's character and fitness requirements for law school as determined by McGeorge Admissions Office and faculty.

Program Requirements

Qualified students must complete all major and general education course requirements, 3 seminar classes for law school preparation, 1 upper-division law course, 5 off-campus law-related activities, and 4 on-campus law-related activities (1 activity each year) in order to complete the undergraduate part of the program. Students in the 4+3 track must complete 60 units on the Stockton campus, while those in the 3+3 track must complete 75 units on the Stockton campus.
